

2016 TLCI Request for Taxis

About this Form

Use this form if you are a taxi licensee that wants a 2016 Taxi and Limousine Cost Index (TLCI) rate increase of up to 2.9%.

In the Metro Vancouver and Fraser Valley common rates areas, licensees with 51% of the taxis must request an increase for it to be applied to all licensees in the area. In other common rates areas, at least 51% of licensees must request an increase.

The final deadline for requesting a 2016 TLCI increase is September 30, 2016. See www.ptboard.bc.ca/tci.htm for details.

Local Government Notice of Pending Taxi Rate Increase

This letter notifies the local government that _____ is asking the Passenger Transportation Board to implement a rate increase of _____ %.

Our request follows the PT Board's 2016 review of taxi costs based on its Taxi and Limousine Cost Index (TLCI). Given costs that accumulated in the calendar years 2013 through 2015, the PT Board approved a maximum rate increase of up to 2.9% that taxi companies can obtain upon request.

You are receiving this notice for information purposes only. Local government action is not required. Background information about TLCI increases for taxis is posted at the PT Board website:

- Taxi & Limousine Cost Index: <http://www.ptboard.bc.ca/tci.htm>
- Taxi Rates in BC: <http://www.ptboard.bc.ca/taxi-rates.htm>

If you have questions about the rate increase we are requesting from the PT Board, you may call us at this phone number:

Sincerely,

General Manager
