

How would YOU like to TRADE PLACES?

a partnership program between the Consulting Engineers of BC and the Ministry of Transportation

- What is Trading Places?
The Trading Places program allows ministry and consultant firm employees to trade places as projects or appropriate assignments become available.
- If I have an assignment that might be suitable, or I am interested in 'Trading Places' who do I contact?

MoT Contact:

Lori Sutton, Manager HR Planning and Development
(250) 356-9662
Lori.Sutton@gems5.gov.bc.ca

- How will I or my organization benefit from participating in this program?

CEBC	MoT
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Exposure to aspects of Ministry operations where the Ministry is the technical expert (i.e. Traffic/electrical);● Individual and corporate networking opportunities; and● Better understanding of Ministry processes/standards/decision making and provincial perspective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Knowledgeable owner status maintained;● Employees utilize and expand technical skills working for consulting firms; and● Assists with future partnering opportunities.

Take advantage of this opportunity to participate in this program, enhance your technical skills and gain exposure to a challenging, new working environment!

CHECK OUT OUR WEBSITE AT:

<http://www.th.gov.bc.ca/recruitment/>