

About This Guide

The information and SSPV Request form in this application guide is for taxi operators that seek to amend their licence to add vehicles to their fleet that are designated as single-shift paired vehicles (SSPV); i.e. separate day and night shift vehicles. This does not increase the number of vehicles that are on the road other than for a short overlap at shift change times. (See Table 1 in this guide for terms and conditions that apply to SSPV.)

A taxi operator holds a special authorization licence that includes a passenger directed vehicle authorization with express authorization to accept hails from the street.

Use this guide and the form on pages 6 and 7 if you are applying only to amend the terms and conditions of your licence to obtain the authorization you need to operate SSPV.

Important!

We recommend that you do not purchase or lease vehicles before the PT Board makes a decision on your application.

I. What are single-shift paired vehicles?

SSPV are separate day and night shift vehicles authorized under the licensee's terms and conditions of licence. Under the taxi modernization process, single-shift paired vehicles were recommended by Hara Associates¹ as a way of reducing trip refusals at shift change when licensees operate vehicles for two shifts on the same day. The SSPV are not in operation at the same time, apart from completion of a trip in process at the end of a shift.

ICBC has changed their insurance product for taxis to provide usage based (kilometer based) insurance. This new insurance product makes SSPV more affordable and attractive.

If the Board approves an SSPV application, it will set terms and conditions of licence with respect to SSPV. Table 1 on the next page provides examples of standard SSPV terms and conditions.

No two vehicles that are operated as single-shift paired vehicles may be on the road at the same time unless one of the vehicles is completing a trip that was accepted prior to its shift end time and the paired vehicle has started its scheduled shift.
